

USB kit (upgrade)

The USB kit is a small PCB that sits on the inside of the machine's back panel, see the illustration to the right at the bottom of the page.

First remove the old USB kit (two screws) and disconnect the cable contact from the main PCB. Then mount the new USB kit with the two plastic "pipes" (encircled in the illustration) between the kit and the back panel of the machine.

